RECALL OF OWENS NOT POPULAR IN CONTRA COSTA

Reports Received From All Points in Senatorial District to the Effect That Recall of Richmond Man Will Not Be Easy Matter—Marin County is Solid For Man Whom His Enemies Seek to Oust From Office—It Is Said That Opposition is Confined to Richmond

News received by this paper, including reports and opinions from the leading citizens of all parts of Contra Costa and Marin counties is to the effect that the attempted recall of Senator J. C. Owens will be defeated by an overwhelming majority. These reports have been carefully gathered from San Rafael and other towns and communities of Marin county, and Martinez, Crockett, Pittsburg, Antioch, Concord, Walnut Creek, Byron and other sections of Contra Costa county.

Practically the only opposition to Senator Owens is among the labor unions of Richmond, and when that vote is polled the opposition to the Senator will have been spent. These reports have been gathered by this paper from every possible source, unbiassed and with a view of arriving at the true condition of the affair, whether it should be favorable to Owens or otherwise, and there is no reasonable doubt but what they are in the main correct.

We have no object and no desire to state these facts other than they really are, and had they been different it would have been so stated. The people of the smaller towns and of the rural communities in both the counties are not in sympathy with the demand of labor organizations that rules applying to factory workers and similar lines in cities like Richmond be extended into the

HORSE THIEF TO FACE TRIAL ON NEXT TUESDAY

J. Petersen, charged F. Fallon, of Stege, with having stolen a horse from the Scow ranch, located on San Pablo creek, will appear in Superior Judge Latimer's court on Tuesday morning for trial.

Fallon alleges that Petersen stole the horse from his ranch several weeks ago and that he disposed of it to another party.

Assistant District Attorney Ormsby has been kept busy today subpoening a number of San Pablo creek residents to appear as witnesses in the case.

FISHERMEN IN READINESS FOR SALMON RUN

In the fishing villages along the Contra Costa shore, the fishermen are making preparations for the salmon season which is expected to open in a few days. Already a few salmon have been caught together with some extra large striped bass but the heavy salmon run is expected to start within a week. The canneries are also making ready for the opening of the season which it is expected will prove a profitable one.

OTTO POULSEN IS NOT A CANDIDATE

Otto Poulsen, the well known jeweler, has requested the Record-Herald to say he is not seeking reelection as school trustee in this city at the election shortly to be held. He states he is too busy attending to his business to devote any time to school questions, and that the reports current to the effect that he is a candidate for the office are erroneous.

BIG LAND DEAL CLOSED YESTERDAY

A large realty deal was closed yesterday when W. W. Cottingham, of the Star Realty company, sold two lots belonging to George Galbraith to W. M. Hansome of Occidental, Madera county, for $7,000 cash.

Ballard was busily engaged at the time in loading iron castings when one slipped from the hoist used to put them on the cars and fell to the ground crusing Ballard's foot under it.

The police will make an investigation.

Sheriff Veale Will Enforce Auto Law

MARTINEZ, March 21—The 20th of March has passed and likewise the last day of grace for auto owners to have state license tags placed on their cars. Nearly all of the machines in this city are displaying the red and white "sign boards" and after this date the officers will begin a strict enforcement of the law arresting all auto owners who do not display numbers of their cars or who do not give evidence that they have applied for the same.

Sheriff Veale is in receipt of the following notice:

To all Sheriff:—

The new Motor Vehicle Act, effective January 1, 1914, has now been in force for about three months and sufficient time therefore has elapsed for all owners of motor vehicles to have complied with the requirements of the law and obtained their necessary credentials for operating the same.

Under the law, one-half the net revenue derived from this Act is returned to the counties from which such applications for registrations have been made. It is, therefore, to the interest of each county that the requirements of the law be complied with and your earnest co-operation to this end is requested.

Briefly stated, the requirements of the law are that each automobile which includes all motor vehicles, with the exception of motorcycles, shall be equipped with a small registered motor vehicle seal and two number plates, one number plate to be affixed to the front and the other to the rear; the rear one to be so placed as to be illuminated at night so as to be readily discernible at a distance of fifty feet in the reverse direction to which such automobile is proceeding. Motorcycles must have number plates affixed to the guard of the wheel.

LAURITZEN'S BODY IS RECOVERED FROM DEPTHS

ANTIOCH, March 21—The search for Robert Lauritzen, brother to the member of the well known shipping firm of this county, who disappeared from here last Saturday afternoon, ended Wednesday night when his body was found floating in the waters of the slip at the Lauritzen wharf.

It is surmised that in going to and from the ark off the wharf where he resided when employed here by his brothers that Lauritzen fell into the water and was unable to save himself from the grasp of death.

He had his permanent home with his family at Rio Vista where he is survived by his widow and six children, two sons, Harry and Roland, and four daughters, Leora, Leocina, Catherine and Theresa.

The deceased was a carpenter by occupation and for many years had been employed both by the Lauritzen Transportation company here of which his two brothers, Fred C. and C. A. Lauritzen, are the controlling factors and at Richmond for the Lauritzen Navigation company in which his brother, H. P. Lauritzen, is dominant owner. His brother, Andrew Lauritzen, is employed as captain on one of the company's boats here.

The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of the family of the deceased at Rio Vista.

STANDARD OIL TEAMS TIED IN SECOND FRAME

At the end of the second inning in the game between the members of the Main office and the Barrel house squad of the Standard oil, the score stood 2 to 2.

"Doc" Watson, of Midnight League fame, was in the box for the Barrel house nine while "Tacks" Hanson twirled for the Office force and so much speed and juice did he give on the ball that a gentle breeze was wafted from the home plate as each man stepped up for his turn. The lineup for the two teams were:

STATE HIGHWAY WORK TO START IN FEW DAYS

MARTINEZ, March 21.—Messrs. W. A. Griscom and Semsen, right of way men of the state highway commission arrived in Martinez on Friday morning and spent the day listing the names of the land owners along the route of the state road from the county line to Martinez and also the owners of the land through which the highway will pass.

The engineers who have been surveying the route for several months filed their reports on Thursday and the fact that the right of way men have been sent here to complete the preliminary work indicates that construction work will be started probably within the next month. Mr. Semsen stated that it is seldom that the commission dispatches the right of way men to carry out their work until everything is in shape for the road building work to be started within a very short time.

ENGINEERS ARE PREPARING DETAIL PLANS FOR HARBOR

P. A. Haviland of the Frm of Haviland, Dozier & Tibbitts, at Work Getting Out Working Blue Prints for Inauguration of Actual Work on Richmond's Inner Harbor—Government Appropriation Likely to go Through Within a Few Days—Work Will Be Commenced Soon

The engineering firm of Haviland, Dozier & Tibbitts, having the work of the Richmond inner harbor in hand, are working on detail plans so that work of actual construction of the big improvement may be started at an early date, according to the statement made by P. A. Haviland to a representative of this paper in San Francisco yesterday.

It is expected that the government appropriation as recommended by the committee of the house of representatives on rivers and harbors will go through within a few days, although the city will begin construction work regardless whether the government money is withheld or not for a while, as the municipality has enough money on hand to commence the work and keep it going for some time.

The last issue of the Richmond Advance, the booster paper published by the Richmond Industrial commission, in commenting on the inner harbor project under the caption "Richmond Makes Record Harbor Victory," says:

"The rapid progress that Richmond has made on her great inner harbor project is the admiration of the state. Not only has this progressive industrial seaport established a record in obtaining approval of the United States army engineers for rivers and harbors and recognition of Congress, but it will win a record

The parents of little Irene Collins, 5 years of age, who lost her way while buying a parasol for her dolly yesterday, were informed of her whereabouts, at the police station by an article published in last evening's issue of the Record-Herald.

SPUDS SHIPPED BY PARCEL POST CAUSE TROUBLE

Anything from a sack of spuds to a baby carriage may go through the mails these days via parcel post. This afternoon the local postoffice attaches were bowled over when Driver Al Mejia spurted up to the front of the post office in his auto and began unloading two sacks of potatoes consigned from H. Ritville in Modesto to C. Jones residing on Ninth street.

The sacks of potatoes weighed in the neighborhood of 50 pounds each and caused considerable annoyance in handling.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

THE OWENS RECALL FIASCO

The recall law as it now exists upon the statute books of California should either be repealed or so amended as to make is impossible for every individual with a grouch and imaginary grievance to get out and put the taxpayers of a community to thousands of dollars expense, of which he pays little or none himself. Before a recall election could be made effective the petition for it should contain a majority of the names of the voters of the county or district affected. As it now is it is a miserable farce and a travesty upon justice, saddling a heavy burden of expense upon the taxpayers and another upon the party being under fire, when in nine cases out of ten the whole matter is nothing but the outcome of some petty spite on the part of a set of individuals whose chief mission in life is to stir up trouble for all other people. The intention of the recall law is all right, and properly safeguarded it would be a beneficial law, but as long as a few disgruntled men can get out and circulate a petition and bring it about it is bound to be a fiasco of the worst sort. For some unaccountable reason a very large number of men will sign any old petition that is shoved under their noses, and then vote contrary to their signatures at the election. This, also, is an exceedingly wishy-washy policy, and no man of sound sense and judgment should do it.

The recall election of Senator J. C. Owens is on for the latter part of this month, and, as usual, the taxpayers are to be mulcted several thousands of dollars to pay for it, when there is no more likelihood of the Senator being recalled than there is of his flying to heaven, or elsewhere.

We have not had much of anything to say about the matter so far, because we presumed that it would probably fall of its own weight, as it deserved to, but it seems that enough signatures have been obtained and the trouble and expense of anothr foolish election, brought about by people whose middle name is Trouble, will have to be bourne.

Senator Owens made an average good record in the senate. He is not perfect, and does not claim to be, any more than any of the rest of us are perfect, and he may have made some mistakes in judgment, but if so they were minor and of small importance. In the main he voted right on the principal measures up for legislation, and did his level best to be a representative for all of the people and not for a few who wanted their special interests protected at the cost of the whole people's interest. The dive element of the liquor interests, the so-called labor bosses and the lobbyists undertook to bulldoze him into being a tool and rubber stamp official in their special interests, and he had the manhood and decency to refuse to be made a cat's paw of. We glory in his spunk. He deserves credit for it, and when the people go to the polls at this idiotic recall election he will get credit, and be returned to the senate by a bigger majority than he beat Sumner Crosby with.

Men like Tveitmoe and Clancy of San Francisco, are the ones who ribbed up this trouble for the Senator and for the people, and that they did so at the request of the dive-keepers of Barbary Coast, whom Senator Owens' 2 o'clock closing law put out of business, no man doubts who has kept track of the movement. If further proof of this fact is wanted, just look into the recent election held at Oakland.

These stirrers up of trouble say that Senator Owens missed many rollcalls during the session. So he did, and no man can serve on seven important committees and not miss many rollcalls, a fact these men are probably ignorant of, among other things they don't know.

Elwood Mead, formerly instructor in the agricultural department of the University of California, hits a big nail on the head when he says: "Let the Government cut up the large holdings of land and distribute it among actual settlers in small parcels and accord the opportunity to pay for it in small installments, extending over a long term of years, and a portion of the unemployed problem will be solved."

RICHMOND TEAM TO CLASH WITH TAILORS SUNDAY

Tomorrow afternoon is the time set for the Richmond team to take its fling at the fast Ambrose Tailoring nine who with their crack pitcher, Starasinich, have won nine out of the last ten games played.

The absence of that old head, "Hunky" Shaw, whose baseball noodle has helped the locals pull off many a sensational play, will be greatly felt, but Manager Greathouse is of the opinion that with the addition of Pingree and Cunningham the gap left by Shaw will be fairly closed.

Charlie Burns will be shifted to the mound where it is expected that his old salary arm will enable him to again duplicate his pitching feat of last Sunday. Burns has been working out at the park each evening in preparation for the game and promises to be in the best of condition.

Should the Richmond team perchance slip out on top of the game tomorrow afternoon it will give them an excellent foundation for their game the following Sunday with the Spokane team of the Northwest League which will end its training season by tackling the local nine. The teams will line up for the game tomorrow in the following manner:

Ambrose Tailors — Starasinich, pitcher; Baldwin, catcher; Kersten, first base; Hooker, second base, Wetzel, third base; Powers, short stop; Biltz, left field; Furler, center field, Peterson, right field.

CROSS CONTINENT JOURNEY ENDS AT BRIDAL ALTER

After a tiresome journey of 15,000 miles from her home in southern Italy, Miss Pauline Rossa, a dark eyed little Italian girl, was met at the Santa Fe station by her lover, B. Menato, an employe at the Standard Oil refinery today and together they boarded a car for Oakland where they were married.

The couple were attended at the marriage ceremony by several of Menato's friends.

Public Administrator Charles E. [illegible]ley has filed his final account and petition for distribution in the estate of W[illegible] William Kelly, deceased. The receipts are given at $613.67, expenses, $2[illegible] 0.63, and claims paid, $151.06 to be divided among the five surviving [illegible] brothers and sisters who are: Mich[illegible]ael and David Kelley, C. A. and N[illegible]n Cannon and Mary A. Gorman.

The public administrator also makes final accou[illegible]nt in the estate of Chris Kirk in which he has received $225. After paying expenses and claims a small residue is to be paid to Anne, Jane and Ma[illegible]ane Kirk, sisters and K. N. and M[illegible]ds Kirk, surviving brothers. James E. Rodgers of the legal firm of Rodgers & Bra[illegible] is the attorney in the cases.

HOME RULE IN TAXATION WILL BE DISCUSSED

"Home Rule in Taxation" will be the topic for discussion this evening at the Lincoln auditorium, on Tenth street. Judge Roth, Attorney Wildgrube and J. W. Wells, organizer of the Home Rule in Taxation league, will address the meeting. Every taxpayer in the county should learn something about this question. There is an amendment to be voted on this year and everyone should become familiar with the provisions of the proposed law.

How Standard Oil Will Spend Millions

Dennis Donahue, financial expert, a man got his traing in Wall street and is recognized throughout the country as a man that knows what the great corporations are doing, writes this in his daily "Business News and Comment," in the S. F. Examiner of a recent issue:

"Here are a few of the things that the Standard Oil of California proposes to wo with the $5,000,000, the proceeds of the special stock dividend recently allowed by the Railroad Commission, and an additional $5,000,000 to be drawn from the company's $30,000,000 surplus:

1. The construction of a fourth pipe line to Richmond from the Kern and Mendota fields, with connections to all olutlying districts. The steel pipe for the big oil main is being distributed along the route, and then ew pipe line is expected to be placed in operation by August 25th.

"2. A mammoth tank, one of the largest on the coast, is now in process of erection at the Richmond refinery. It will be used exclusively in loading the steamer 'Richmond' and several new tankers that are being built to handle the heavy tonnage trough the Panama canal.

"3. Orders have been placed with eastern steel works for one million six hundred thousand pounds of sheet steel for adding very materially to the capacity of the tank farm just east of Richmond. The company has just added the one thousand acres comprised in the Blume ranch to its tankage area."

farming and fruit growing sections and the smaller towns whose chief industries are canning factories and similar lines. In fact, they are bitterly opposed to it, and this will be one main reason for their voting against the recall of Senator Owens. Another big reason with them, as well as with almost everyone else, is the fact that the expense of the election of nearly $10,000 is a needless one, for the reason that the state senate does not convene again until 1915 and the recall matter could just as well have been attended to at the regular November election, thus saving the expense which the taxpayers are being put to by those who as a general rule pay very little taxes themselves. This touches the pocketbooks of the people and they strenuously object to being made to pay out a large sum of money to please any one faction, no matter who or what that faction may be.

The newspapers and the leading men of Marin county report almost to a man that the recall will fall in that county, and that Senator Owens will be given a very handsome majority, and this, it is believed, is substantially correct. And this same report comes from all over Contra Costa county, outside of Richmond, and may be depended upon as being semi-official and absolutely correct. The opposition is largely confined to the city of Richmond, and the friends of Senator Owens are confident that he will do much better than break even in this city.

As the date for the election draws nigh the friends of Senator Owens in this city are beginning now to rally to his defense and support and will be [illegible] from now on until the polls close on the evening of the 31st inst. They are mindful of the fact that he has always been found in the foreground and hard at work for every project, no matter what it was, for the good and benefit of Richmond, spending his time and money and boosting continuously for the tidelands matters, for the inner harbor project, going on to Washington at large expense of time and money in that behalf, for the tunnel project, for the school bond matters and in fact for everything which the Richmond people have fought so hard for and which is to bring to them great prosperity and future growth.

ENGINEERS PREPARING PLANS FOR HARBOR

in time of construction. Now that it has the federal government behind it in the work, Richmond will show the world how rapidly a harbor can be constructed.

"The main basin of the new harbor, extending from Brooks island to Point Isabel, a length of ten thousand two hundred feet, is ample to accommodate a large amount of shipping of all classes. It is remarkable how fast harbor frontage of the most advantageous sort is taken up by all sorts of shipping, from the humble bay craft to the great ships that wing or steam their way from port to port about the world. From the smallest to the greatest class of shipping it all helps produce the potential elements of development and Richmond will grow and grow and grow through these added facilities.

"This fine city-owned free arbor will attract shipping where others that have certain handicaps will not. Richmond has started right. Its harbor will not be in the grip of any monopoly. The development of its shipping will not be throttled by the grin of selfish influences. It will be wide open to commerce under the best and freest conditions, and commerce will flow int olt.

"Along the entire frontage of this harbor, factories, railroad freight yards, shops, ship-building plants, warehouses, wholesale houses and other enterprises will be etablished. The belt railroad, connecting with the transcontinental lines, that is to extend from Stege along the entire front of the new harbor, through the municipal tunnel, and connect with the present belt railroad along the existing natural deep-water frontage of the city, will connect with a series of industries that will not be surpassed in this country."

May 1, 2, 3—Celebration to be held by Richmond lodge of Elks in honor of dedicating new home.

April 3.—Dance to be given in Sequoia hall by Independent Order of Foresters.

August 9—Annual picnic to be given at East Shore park by Richmond Aerie Eagles.

RICHMOND ADVANCE BOOST EDITION

The Richmond Advance, a booster paper published by the Richmond Industrial commission, is out again and contains much matter of interest to people having money invested in this city. We clip the following items from the editorial page concerning Richmond and its progress:

The electric railroad on Cutting Boulevard should be ready for operation this fall. The fill at the westerly end of the boulevard, where there were some low spots, is nearly finished. The Southern Pacific Company, which has partly built this new system in Richmond, will have plenty of money, the $55,000,000 bond issue filling its coffers and providing for extended development. Richmond will probably get more than the Cutting Boulevard railway.

The offer of ferry slips on the outer deep water front, where the San Pablo quarries are located, makes the project of a Richmond-Marin ferry and railroad much easier. The site of the quarries is at the end of the electric street railway line that passes the Standard Oil refinery, which would give desired rail connection. The Belt Railroad wharves offer another excellent site for the ferry slips. To meet requirements a fast train could be put on the Belt line to meet boats.

The Key Route must soon be extended into Richmond. The territory is becoming too valuable as a transportation section to permit of much more delay. With the Key Route line entering the city north of Macdonald avenue on a route laid out generally along the foothills, and the Southern Pacific electric system entering over Cutting boulevard, this city will acquire additional fast transportation that always assists in development.

What a tremendous achievement it would be for either San Francisco or Oakland to double their population. How long do you think it will take either to do it? San Francisco would then have 1,000,000 people and Oakland 350,000. Richmond has trebled her population in three years. She can easily do as well in another ten years and it is expected she will do it in less with the Panama canal open and her inner harbor busy. Richmond would then have between 50,000 and 60,000 population. Think of that as an investment proposition. In the larger cities it costs a fortune to make an investment, and a 30 per cent increase in a decade would be rapid growth. In Richmond you can make an investment with a few dollars that will make you rich when the population here even doubles. Richmond is the place for the money of every investor.

Fred E. Wheaton, supreme keeper of records and seal, of the Knights of Pythias of the United States, accompanied by Judge Samuels, of Oakland, were visitors in this city last evening. They came over to attend a meeting of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias.

LICENSE TAX TO GO TOWARD STATE HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENT

As a result of the supreme court holding the new motor vehicle law as constitutional, a portion of the money paid the state under the provisions of the statute by automobile owners will be returned indirectly to them, according to the plan just announced by State Highway Engineer A. B. Fletcher. The plan outlined by Engineer Fletcher provides that the paved sections of the new state highway system are to be widened by rock shoulders, making a minimum width of twenty-one feet for turning out, and the work is to be done without in any way lessening the mileage of pavement originally figured throughout the state.

The work will be accomplished by keeping the maintenance crews on the state highway work busy, when not repairing the roads, in constructing the stone "shoulders" to be added to the concrete-asphalt pavements.

These shoulders will generally be three feet wide on each side of the paved section, and it is planned to put them on as fast as possible, now that the maintenance crews are made available. They will serve to keep an automobile from running into soft ground when getting off the pavement and will give ample room for turning around. The shoulders also serve an important purpose in protecting the edges of the pavement.

"A complaint commonly made where pave county roads are constructed," said Highway Engineer Fletcher yesterday, "is that they are too narrow. Twenty years ago in Massachusetts pavements of the same width as we are now building here were called 'cow paths.' That was long before the day of the automobile. The people soon became accustomed to the roads and criticisms ceased. Even now, with the many motors on the state highways of populous Massachusetts, in most cases the fifteen-foot paving is amply wide.

"Were there ample funds for the purpose, I would personally favor a width of eighteen feet of paving instead of the fifteen-foot width but such a scheme is not possible under the conditions. If, in the future, additional money becomes available for Widening the paving it may be done easily and at no excessive cost because of the slight crown or camber adopted for the present pavements.

"With the exception of the state highways between San Francisco and Santa Clara county and elsewhere adjacent to San Francisco bay, of several roads radiating out of Los Angeles and a section immediately south of Fresno, where greater widths of eighteen to twenty-four feet have been provided, the paved roads are generally planned to be fifteen feet wide. This width, with the hardened shoulders which the commission has contemplated constructing, is ample for the volume of traffic which the roads will have to provide for.

"Fifteen feet is sufficiently wide for two automobiles to pass at any reasonable speed, and the shoulders three feet wide on each side should be ample for turning out purposes when vehicles with unusually wide bodies must pass each other. The state highways of the eastern states, in the country districts, vary generally from fourteen to sixteen feet in width of paving, with suitable shoulders in addition."

Engineer Fletcher was for seventeen years the executive officer in the Massachusetts state highway work before coming to California, and superintended the building of the Massachusetts state highway, now considered a model of road planning. In that work he paid special attention to the needs of the motorist, at a time when automobiles were little considered for touring or commercial purposes, but which have since been justified in the bay state. A similar foresight, which the highway commission believes will e copied in astern states, provides on the California state highway mountain grades of a maximum of 6 to 7 per cent, wide sweeping curves and elimination of many grade crossing at steam and electric railroads, hmmaking touring safer and less expensive than before and saving considerable expense in tires and gasoline.

CATARRH OF THE PHARYNX.

Clearing out your throat every day, all day. That is what you have been doing for months. Possibly years. A little mucus covers the pharynx.

If you were to go to a doctor he would tell you that you have pharyngitis. If you were to look into your own throat you would find just back of the soft palate a red, lumpy, granular appearance of the back part of the throat. Pharyngitis the doctors call it.

Perhaps he would call it, follcular pharyngitis. It causes you constant annoyance. You are always making slight disturbances when seated in an audience. Can't hold your throat still. Stringy mucus bothers you. Worse in the morning.

A-hem! A-hem! A-hem! That is the way you are going nearly all day. Sometimes in the night when you wake up. You ought to gargle your throat with salt water every morning. Cold salt water. That clears out the throat perfectly and makes it ready for treatment.

Peruna is the treatment. Begin with a teaspoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Try it for a week. You will be convinced. Of course, Peruna will not entirely relieve you in a week. That is too much to expect of any remedy. But it will benefit you so much you will be convinced. Yes, it will. It has done this many times.

Folicular pharyngitis. Big words. Almost as bad as the disease. But if you take Peruna for one month regularly, you may forget that you ever had such a disease. Then you will have a perfect right to forget the big words too.

People who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

WITH THE CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"It has become something of a joke to call a man 'A Willing Worker,' but the joke was started and is fostered by men who are themselves too lazy to work. In its heart, the world loves the willing worker—the enthusiast—even while it fears him." It loves him because he does the things that have to be done, because he accomplishes what he sets out to do. It fears him because he gets all the best jobs, and makes more hopeless the prospects of the indifferent worker."

If you are an enthusiast come to this church and we will give you work to do that will be helpful to you and your associated. The theme for the morning is "Aspiration," while that of the evening is "Things Are Not What They Seem." A welcome awaits you. ABUNDANT CROPS PROMISED STATE

Declaring that, with the promise of abundant crops, the Pacific coast states should forge ahead and help to get prosperity started once more, President W. Sproule of the Southern Pacific company, returned from New Work Thursday as optimistic as ever in regard to conditions in general. Sproule's visit to New York was of no particular significance, it being a part of the natural routine of his work to be in the east at least twice a year.

"Preparations for the suit to separate the Central Pacific from the Southern Pacific," said Sproule, "are being handled here, recognizing that the suit is not merely a question for the railroad company, but one that touches to a very important degree the material prosperity of the Pacific coast states. We have a strong desire to co-operate fully with the commercial bodies and the state authorities who have shown so keen an interest in the suit and a desire to co-operate with the company. For myself, I cannot help feeling that the suit has been brought under grave misapprehension and that this will develop quickly as the case proceeds. We appreciate very fully the spirited attitude of the communities we serve and wish to reciprocate their cordiality in working out the suit with them, but we are confident that there will be a favorable conclusion. The answer to the complaint of the government will be filed as soon as counsel are ready.

"Like all other railroads in the United States, we are chiefly engaged at present in an effort to cut our coat according to our cloth. Railroad earnings generally are so poor, their unavoidable expenses so high and business throughout the nation so prostrate, that it takes an optimist to maintain the belief that this condition will pass with this winter, which has just begun to smile into the spring. I believe we of the Pacific coast are more hopeful that the states to the east of us, and without being a prophet, I cannot resist the belief that with the promise we have of abundant crops on this coast we should forge ahead and help to get prosperity started once more. It largely rests with the president of the United States, and it is encouraging to know that he is intensely interested in the problem of restoring prosperity. If he solves it, this nation should go bounding forward beyond our expectations.

"As for California travel, this year it is dull because people everywhere are saving up to come to California next year for the Exposition. Travel throughout the east is dull, too. Such lines as the Pennsylvania and the New York Central are cutting down their passenger train service materially because there is a diminished public demand for such service. The overland lines serving California find similar lack of patronage. The lines generally are doing more work for less money than ever before, with a consequent decline in net earnings and a decrease in their ability to employ labor. When we can put all the men back to work, other lines of industry will be able to do the same and there will be no army of the unemployed excepting those who have no wish to be employed. The man who desires work and is accustomed to it, but who is without employment because of the shrinkage of business, has the deepest sympathy of every good citizen and it is our duty to do all we can toward putting him to work. It has now become a national problem which can be solved only by the resumption of business actively and not hesitatingly."

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE OPPOSES DRY AMENDMENT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 20.—As a result of the conference between the Northern and Southern California members of the California Anti-Saloon league which took place in Los Angeles a few days ago, the dry forces are hopelessly split and the northern contingent will throw all their strength against the dry amendment to the state constitution on which the people will vote in November.

There is much bitterness among the northern men who declare they found the southern members of the league dominated by a financial element which loudly contended there could be no compromise but that the amendment must be carried exactly as it stands.

The mission of the northern men to Los Angeles was to make an effort to induce the Southern California prohibition leaders to consent to a change in the amendment by which the law would not take effect, at least in its application to the wine industry for three or five years. They contended the amendment in its present form which provides it shall go into effect five days after the certification of the returns, if the amendment is adopted, would mean confiscation of the property of the wine man and the reduction of prosperous farmers to practical poverty.

One of the men in close touch with the affairs of the Anti-Saloon league said today:

"Northern California men found they could do nothing with the people in Los Angeles. A fanatical element in control of the situation there would not listen to reason or argument. They simply replied to all our statements: 'This movement is inspired of God. We are acting under the direct revelation of the will of the Almighty. There can be no compromise.'

"Against this fanatical sentiment we could make no headway. The fanatics would not listen to reason. In fact, they would not permit anything like a fair discussion of the matter.

"We returned from Los Angeles convinced that the radical views of the men in control of the situation down there will accomplish the defeat of the amendment. It will be beaten in Southern California, and in the northern part of the state it will be overwhelmed."

At a meeting of the Anti-Saloon League, to be held in the near future, a statement will be prepared for publication which will give in detail the position of the northern California members of the league. This statement it is said, will contain the declaration that the members of the Northern California Anti-Saloon League will not consent to serve a moral end by immoral means. It will be a practical declaration of war on the dry amendment.

30,000 VOICES!

And Many Are The Voices Of Richmond People

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Richmond people are in this chorus. Here's a Richmond case:

Mrs. M. E. Stubblefield, 534 Ripley Ave., Richmond, Cal., says: "Two of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills and in both cases the best of results were had. One of the family suffered from attacks of backache and often felt too sick to run down to do any housework. Doan's Kidney Pills cured this case. Recently, I gave Doan's Kidney Pills to one of my relatives who had weak kidneys and couldn't control the kidney secretions. It wasn't long before this weakness went away. I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney complaint."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PRICES FIXED ON THE STATE TEXT BOOKS

SACRAMENTO, March 20. — The State Board of Education has fixed the price of state school books, and they can be purchased after the first of next month from book dealers in the various cities and towns. Where there are no dealers books can be purchased direct from Edward Hyatt, State Superintendent of public instruction, by remitting the price, plus postage.

The price at which the books will be sold is much below the former price, although the royalty is the same and the postage about as much. The sale price is on the average of fifty per cent less than under the former administration of the state printing office.

The first column below shows the price plus royalties and will be the price at Sacramento to dealers who must pay the freight or express charges. The last column shows the price for single books sent by mail and it is also the maximum price at which dealers can sell to the public. Superintendent Hyatt requests purchasers to notify him if any attempt is made to charge more than these amounts. The state board made these prices in figures ending in 0 to 5 so that parents and pupils would not be taxed the odd cents by dealers.

RICHMOND NOW UNDER THE HEAD OF NEW BUSINESS

Fair Prospects of a Big New Factory—Wealthy Australian Buys Waterfront Land for Improvement—Buildings for East Richmond—Burg Bros. Piling Bricks on Top of Each Other; the Bricks, Not the Brothers—Porcelain Works Extending Trade—Harbor Bonds in Brisk Demand and Appropriation Sure—Fitzpatrick Laying for John Nicholl—Many Improvements Going on; Times Good and Getting Better.

Richmond was honored Thursday by a visit from Mr. Alexander J. Porter, president of the Shredded Wheat factory of Niagara, New York, who is looking over this section of California for a large branch factory for his business and came to Richmond with that end in view. He was brought here through the efforts of H. H. Turley, secretary of the Sequoia Commercial Club and H. W. Wernse, secretary of the Richmond Industrial Commission, and these gentlemen showed him over the city and made him acquainted with Richmond's advantages and claims as a superior location for all manufacturing business, by virtue of its deep water harbors, transcontinental railroads, cheap oil, cheap power and proximity to the great markets of the world. Mr. Porter was much interested and pleased with what he saw and learned here, and intimated very strongly before leaving that the factory would quite likely be located either at Richmond or Oakland, both points seeming good ones to him. Our boost body officials are to keep in touch with him. His proposed new factory will employ about a thousand men and it is to be hoped that Richmond will be the lucky location.

Another personage of prominence to visit this city this week was Mr. Leonard Price, a wealthy Australian, who is much interested in waterfront developments at Sydney, Australia. Mr. Price is en route to New York and other large ports in England, Germany and France and was much interested in the deep harbor and waterfront development of Richmond He expressed surprise at the existing traffic conditions of San Francisco bay and declared that the Richmond Inner Harbor was the only practical solution. He was so much interested in such matters here that he purchased some of the waterfront property of the Ellis Landing and Dock company and upon his return from abroad will improve it largely. Mr. Price bore letters from the banks and leading men of Sydney and his investment here is worthy of more than passing notice.

A number of fine residences are being planned for erection on the East Richmond Heights trace, adjoining the city to the east, among them one by Major D. W. McLaughlin, who will build on a high place in the east hills so as to enjoy the unsurpassed marine view which that location affors. The Major expects to go to heaven some day, and undoubtedly will, as he deserves to, but in the meantime he wants to get just as near to it as possible while on this mundane sphere, hence the selection of a high place on which to build. Major Dan always was sort of high up in his notions, anyway. That's why he selected Richmond for his base of operations.

That fine new three-story brick and cement business block being erected on the Burg Brothers' Nicholl-Macdonald tract is beginning to assume shape and will soon be noticeable from all sections of the city. It is to be one of the finest class A. buildings in Richmond and will be an ornament and a credit to that section of the city. The ground floor has already been spoken for and will be occupied by a mercantile establishment, and the two upper floors are to be converted into a swell apartment and rooming house.

The porcelain works out on one of Herbert Brown's tracts, to the northwest of the city, is enlarging its buildings, its plant and its business, putting on more men and coming to the front in great shape. It is now turning out a big order of porcelain ware for Los Angeles dealers and is extending its business all over the west. Richmond has the only porcelain works west of New Jersey and the industry is getting to be a very important one for this city.

The Richmond harbor bonds are in brisk demand at a fair price and this week City Treasurer Vaughn and Auditor McVittie took over another big bunch to San Francisco, of $290,000, for delivery to E. H. Rollins & Son. There have now been sold $590,000 of the harbor bonds, with $480,000 yet to sell. The government of the United States will chip in another $100,000 in a few weeks, and then the actual work on building the inner harbor will begin and continue for a number of years into the future. We fully expect that now that Uncle Sam has agreed to appropriate over $400,000 this session of congress, that he will thus get a tail hold on the bear and keep coming every two years until a million or more will find its way into Richmond harbor improvements. In this connection large praise is due to the members of the Richmond Industrial Commission who went on to Washington several times and boosted with all their might and main for this great project. If they had not have done so Richmond would not have got any more government appropriation than a rabbit, and Congressman Curry will tell you so if you ask him. Many scoffed at the plan when it was first sprung, and refused to have anything to do with it, but twenty of these men who know no such word as fail went on there to the national capital and threw themselves into the breach, body and soul, and pocketbook, also, for it cost them a thousand dollars apiece to do it. And the final results, thanks to their energy and enterprise, will amount up to more than a million dollars to Richmond before the deal closes.

The builders and contractors of Richmond got together at Sequoia hall Wednesday evening and arranged to perfect an organization in this city of all men and firms in the building and contracting business. The object of the association will be to protect its members and to bring about a high class of building here, and incidentally to help boost Richmond in every way.

John Nicholl is still in New York, having visited Washington and hobnobbed with the senators and congressmen there. He writes to T. Park Jacobs that business seems fairly good back east, the bathing at Coney Island too cold for Californians and the women not near as pretty as those of the Pacific coast. John is an observing man.

E. J. Fitzpatrick of J. W. Wright & Co. was in the city yesterday, looking over the various tracts in which they are interested here. Fitz is pretty mad at John Nicholl. John bet him $50 that he did not dare to fly from San Francisco to Richmond in an aeroplane; Fitz flew all right, just like the bird that he is, and then John renigged on the fifty on a technicality, claiming that the flight was not made in an aeroplane but a hydroplane. Fitz is thinking seriously of having John arrested for leaving the country and defrauding his creditors, claiming that he should not have gone back to Washington and New York without settling up his just accounts. We believe Mr. Fitzpatrick is just right, and that Nicholl either ought to come through with that $50 or be forever after barred from all sporting circles of a high class.

The Wernses and Dave Ingram positively refuse t eat the baled hay that Henry Cutting is going to raise down by the waterfront, and now want to negotiate with this scribe to feed it to his rabbits out on the 2x4 ranch. With $10,000 pearls coming out of the clams of the canal we don't see what they want to bother with hay for, anyhow.

Street work and other improvements are still going on in the Wall's Harbor tract and a lot of building is scheduled for that section during the current year. The big park plan and civic center campaign are due to be heard from in the immediate future, also.

About sixty mule teams are tearing up the earth and smoothing it down again on the J. C. Owens tract, but Senator Jim is too busy with politics just now to give much of his time to the supervision of the work. He reports his campaign as looking all right and expects to win out by a large majority.

The Sacramento river water campaign will soon open up here and the people be made wise on the ins and outs of the water question. The report of Haviland, Tibbitts & Dozier is a voluminous document, and the people should read it carefully, and get posted on this important question. The claim is made that the proposed new waterworks for Richmond will pay for themselves.

There is an unconfirmed report to the effect that the Pullman shops in Richmond are to be doubled in capacity soon, and the report is given color by the fact that Chicago officials have been in consultation with the local management relative to it for some time past. The shops here are crowded to the limit all the time with work and enlargement is necessary.

The dredge will soon have Cutting boulevard completed now the work of paving that thoroughfare will commence, during which the Southern Pacific electric line tracks will be laid.

It begins to look as though the widening and paving of 23rd street would be brought about without litigation, as was feared, as all parties concerned are anxious to see the work done as soon as possible.

Building and business is gradually improving all over Richmond and 1914 is going to be a hummer of a year when it gets fairly under way.

Word has been received by relatives from Jas. A. Silvas, who recently went to Arizona with his brother, John, in the hopes of improving the latters health. The brothers are now at Yuma and "Jim" writes that it is some warm in thet section of this glorious union and diapharious clothing is much in demand. BOOTBLACK MAY HAVE TO SERVE PRISON TERM

Joe Givonetti, the Italian bootblack charged with having perpetrated an unmentionable crime in Richmond will appear in the superior court on Monday morning, March 30th, to receive his sentence. Assistant District Attorney Ormsby stated to a Record-Herald reporter today that he was of the opinion that Givonetti will probably be charged with assault for which he will have to return to San Quentin and finish serving the rest of his three-year sentence.

NINE INCHES OF SNOW FALLS OVER RICHMOND

RICHMOND, (Va.) March 21.—Creeping silently out of the West unheralded and unannounced, a typical blizzard broke over Virginia last night and broke all local weather bureau records for March. Nine inches of snow fell in this city. In the southwest part of the state there was much suffering among the poor and traffic was tied up in many of the cities.

MANY THOUGHT THE PRESIDENT WAS IN TOWN

That President Woodrow Wilson is in Richmond, incognito, was the rumor which spread through the business district like wild fire this morning.

At least a score of people phoned to the Record-Herald office during the forenoon to ask concerning the rumor and Richmond generally was agog with rumors of impending wars—that Richmond was to be made a new naval base, that the army had secretly arranged for an aeroplane corps to have its Pacific coast headquarters near the Richmond water front. Just who was the tall dignified stranger dresses in a quiet suit of blue and with the proverbial Wilson chin and eye glasses? The fact that the stranger had been seen during the morning in company with A. C. Lang, Editor Hulaniski and a number of the local democrats lent credit to the story. An investigation by the Record-Herald reported led to the discovery that President Wilson has a very good double in the person of H. L. Brown of Portland, Oregin, who is in Richmond producing "The Elks Tooth," a three act comedy which the local "Bills" will present to the public at the Richmond theater on the nights of April 1st and 2nd.

Many Hear Lecture By Helen Keller

Many Richmond people attended the lecture at Ye Liberty theatre, Oakland, yesterday, by Helen Keller, the deaf and blind graduate of Radcliffe (Harvard) University. The many teachers employed in the Richmond schools, who are particularly interested in the methods adopted to teach Miss Keller, were much in evidence.

Preceding Miss Keller's talk, Mrs. John Macy, for twenty-seven years teacher and friend of Helen Keller, told of her work in opening to the blind and deaf girl world of light and knowledge. She related the earliest experiences she had in imparting knowledge to her pupil, and of their later experiences at Radcliffe and elsewhere.

"I have never known any one so keenly alive with interest in world subjects and theses," said Mrs. Macy, "nor any one so fond of argument and discussion as Helen Keller."

Miss Keller told a most interest-in gstory at the conclusion of which she answered many questions asked by parties who composed her audience. In answer to the question, "Why are you a Socialist?" she explained that Socialism was the only system that offered a fair share of comfort to the people. Touching upon her main address Miss Keller said:

"I have never beheld the wonderful fires in the heavens, but they have shined in my thoughts for a very long time. Imagination is the most helpful faculty I possess, in my effort to reach out from my world of darkness and silence."

Her lecture yesterday was the second which Helen Keller has given here for the benefit of the Associated Charities, and like the previous one, it was in the nature of a massage of brotherhood.

"We are all bound together, we live for each other, and by each other. Our success depends upon each other," she said. "Everyone owes it to himself and to others to make the most of each gift God has given him. The life we live for each other is really the only one worth living."

Speaking of her first impression upon hearing musical sounds, Miss Keller said: "The sound was wonderful; I was thrilled. There was a richer, fuller and sweeter quality to it than I can ever get through my fingers."

"California's beauty lies in its thousand perfumes, according to her measurements," she told an inquisitor yesterday.

RATE ORDERS WITHDRAWN AFFECTING THIS COUNTRY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—Under order of March 16 the Interstate Commerce commission has suspended "indefinitely" the withdrawal of terminal rates which are now enjoyed by 187 California towns, and which in 182 cases were ordered abolished beginning April 1.

Notice of the commission's action was received here yesterday by the officials of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, Western Pacific and Northwestern Pacific railroads. The whole affair is known as the Santa Rosa case because the city of Santa Rosa complained to the Interstate Commerce Commission that while 187 towns and cities in the state received terminal rates—i. e., rates granted on the theory of water competition, Santa Rosa got none. The commission found this to be true and directed that all these towns except San Francisco, Oakland, San Pedro, Los Angeles and San Diego be removed from terminal classification, or else that Santa Rosa be admitted thereto.

To this order many cities in the state took strong exception, including Sacramento, Marysville and San Jose, claiming themselves entitled to exemption and the suspension of the order followed.

While this action removes the anticipation that terminal advantages accruing to the 182 points in this state are to be suspended the commission has the power at any time to restore the order made in the Santa Rosa case. It is therefore considered advisable by the points threatened to prepare their petitions of intervention with the interstate commerce commission and be ready with argument for the final disposition of the problem in the event of the issue being restored for consideration.

Dr. Blake Writes About Diphtheria

(Contributed by Richmond Department of Health).

Diphtheria. This disease is a dangerous communicable disease caused by a specific germ, which is propagated in the human body or its excretions. The poison may be transmitted from person to person directly or indirectly. It may be harbored in filth. It may be transmitted through the medium of air, milk, food or clothing, either bed or wearing apparel.

It usually attacks the throat only but may spread to the mouth and nasal passages. The earlier symptoms are loss of appetite, sore throat, headache, dry, hot skin, feverishness, pain, tenderness and swelling at the angle of the jaw and very often, profuse secretions from the nose which may give off an offensive odor.

When your child complains of these disorders, it is always best to call in a physician, as early recognition and treatment of diphtheria is very important. It is often difficult to distinguish mild cases of diphtheria from pharyngisis, laryngitis or a severe tonsolitis. Failure to recognize early, these mild cases is often the cause of extensive epidemics of diphtheria. For this reason, an early diagnosis and report of the disease is highly important.

When your child comes down with diphtheria, the first thing you think about is how to get well. The next most important thing for you to consider is how you can best prevent other members of your family from contracting the disease and second, how can you best protect your neighbors and friends from the disease. This can best be done by proper and careful observance of such sanitary and hygienic precautions as are advised by your doctor or the Health Officer.

The chief thing to remember is that diphtheria is highly contagious. It is wise, therefore, to treat bad cases of tonsolitis and other sore throats as suspected cases of diphtheria. You hould be careful about catching the breath of the patient. The patient should be kept in a room with only such furniture as is necessary for his care and comfort. He should not be allowed to handle books or toys. Those which he handled prior to the time it was determined that he had the disease should be burned. Such disinfectants as the doctor orders should be rigidly used and only those who are caring for the patient should be permitted to enter the room.

Diphtheria poison may retain its virulence for a long time and be carried long distance in articles which have been allowed to remain in the room in which a diphtheria patient has been cared for.

Antitoxin is a sure cure for diphtheria but its efficiency is directly in proportion to the promptness with which it is used. Any delay means danger, long delay means death.

Isolation is necessary to prevent the spread of diphtheria. Mild cases and cases which show no outward sign spread the disease. No case is allowed under the law to leave the premises until an examination with the microscope shows the germs to have disappeared from the throat.

Antitoxin is to diphtheria what sunshine is to snow.

A syringe of antitoxyn is better than volumes of advice.

The physician who delays giving antitoxin belongs with the man who waited until the house burned down to put out the fire.

A sore throat in diphtheria season is as suspicious as a strange negro in a henhouse.

Great epidemics from little sore throats grow.

Take no more chances with diphtheria than with a coiled rattler.

MEESE URGED TO RUN FOR THE ASSEMBLY

SAN RAMON, March 21.—The friends of W. R. Meese are urging him to become a candidate for the assembly to succeed T. D. Johnston who is heading for the district attorney's office with A. S. Ormsby and A. J. Soto blocking the way. Mr. Meese is a sort of Henry Nevarre in politics in this section and it is argued that he would run like a scared rabbit if he starts. He is popular and has a knowledge of public affairs possessed by few men in private life.

Meese objects to becoming a candidate on the ground that he has a relative, a brother or something, who is an assessor or something like that down at the county seat. He is afraid he might be elected to that position by mistake and he don't want that sort of a job at all. He wants the assembly where he can stir things up and it is the general impression if he gets there he will move things around a bit.

SLOW TRACK MEET COPPED BY FAST SERIOR CLASS

Seniors 72, Freshmen 35, Sophomores 15 and Juniors 4, was the result of the annual Richmond High School Interclass meet held at the East Shore oval yesterday afternoon. Although no records were made the aspirants showed to great form and proved to those present that there is considerable material in the school this year which should grow up to some advantage before the year 1914 closes.

Some of the stars of the meet were Lipp, who took first place from Donnelly, county title holder in the 50-yard event, and Hawkins who copped 15 points for the Freshmen class.

Levi R. Fulton, proprietor of the Fulton drug store, corner of 12th street and Macdonald avenue, departed this morning for a trip to the east on business.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts is Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active. —advt.
